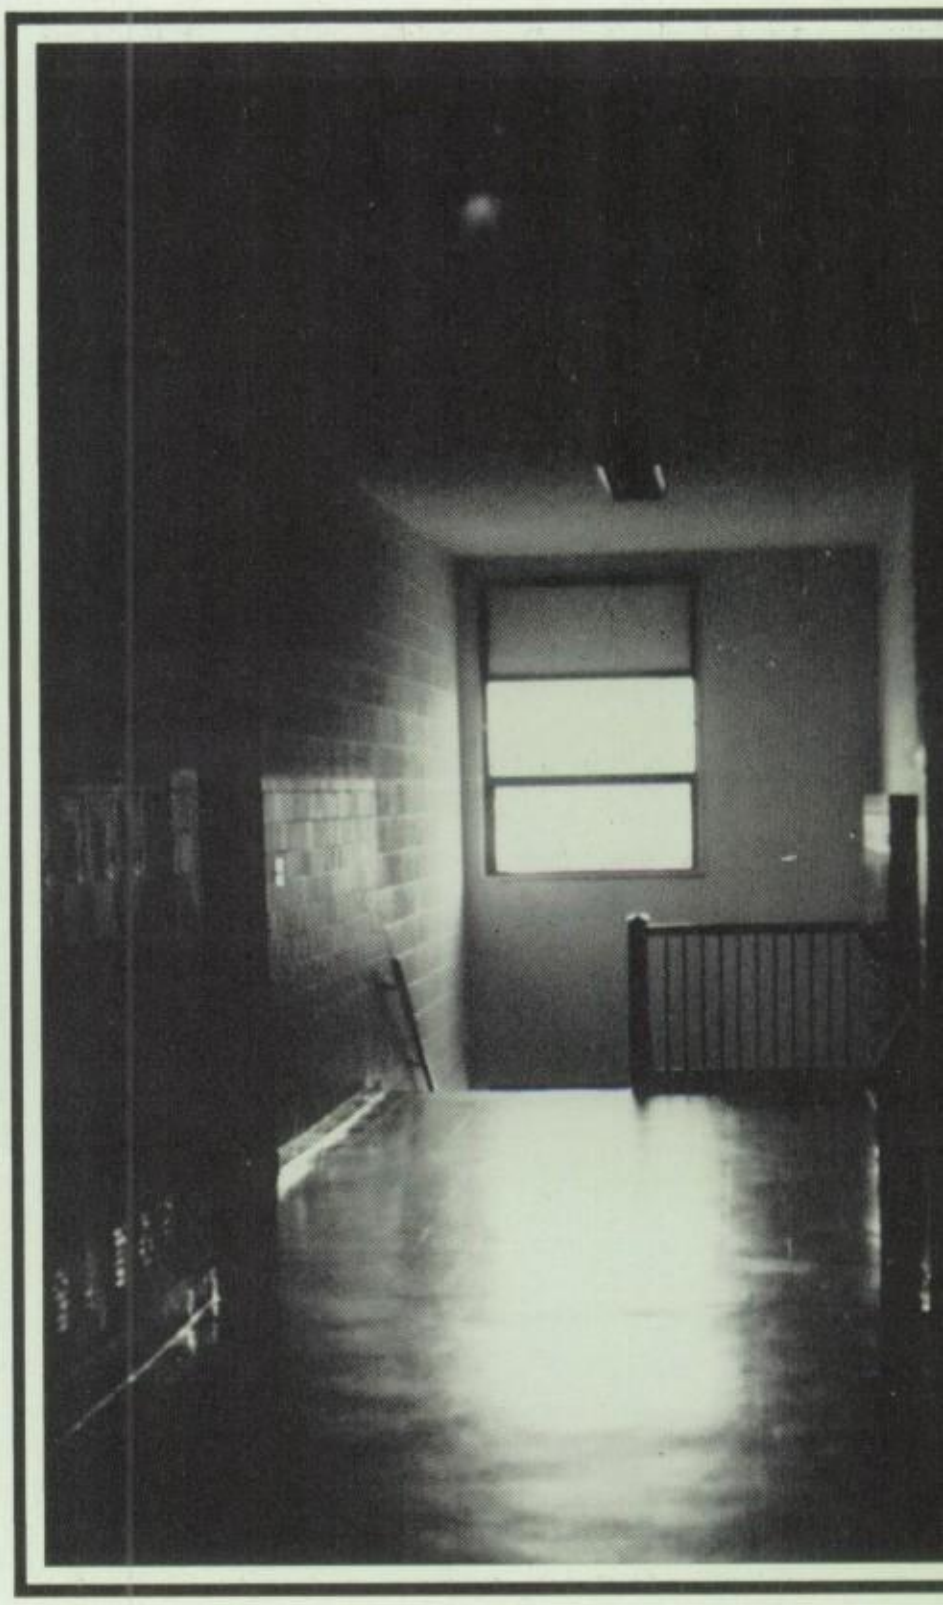
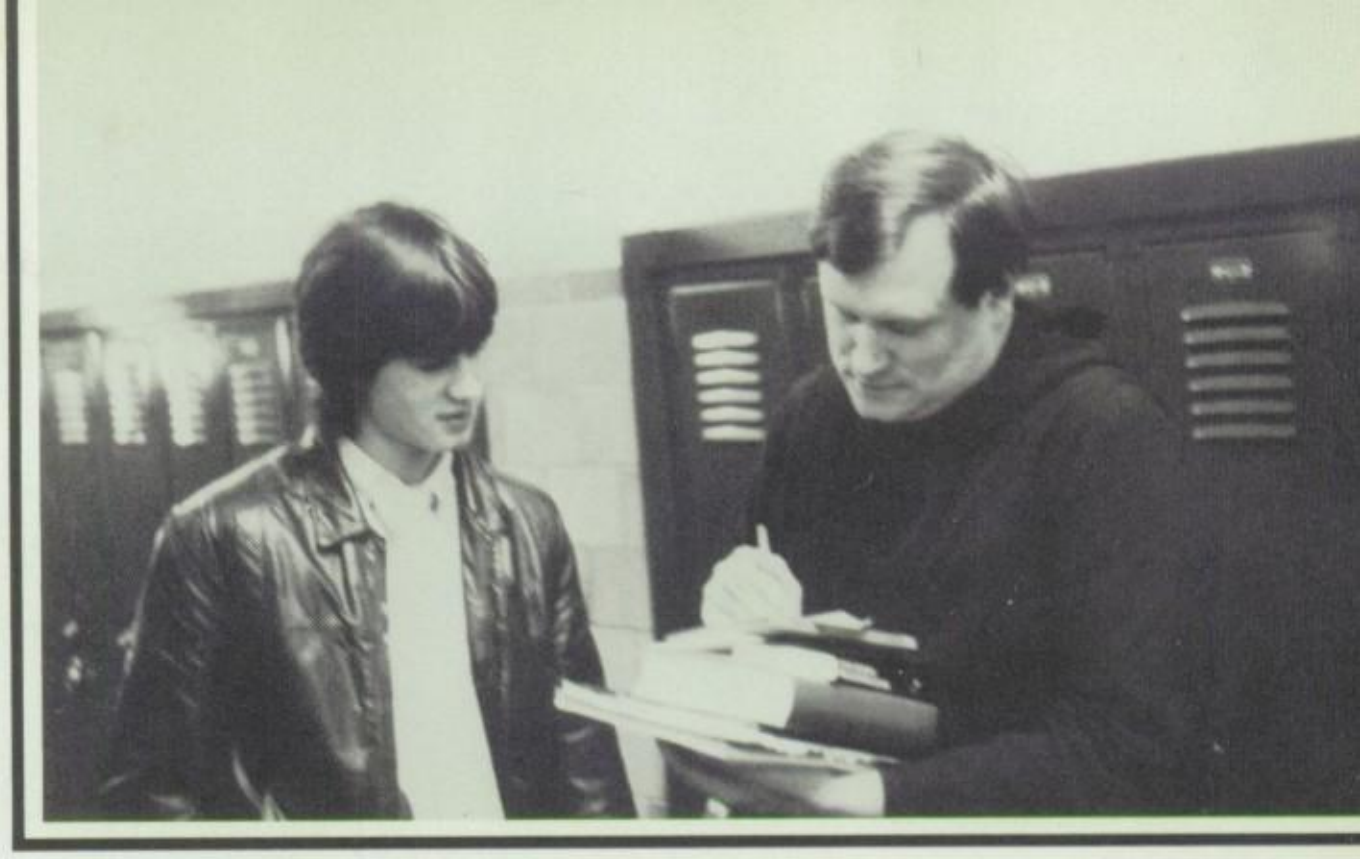
BHS . . . A YEAR OF CHANGE

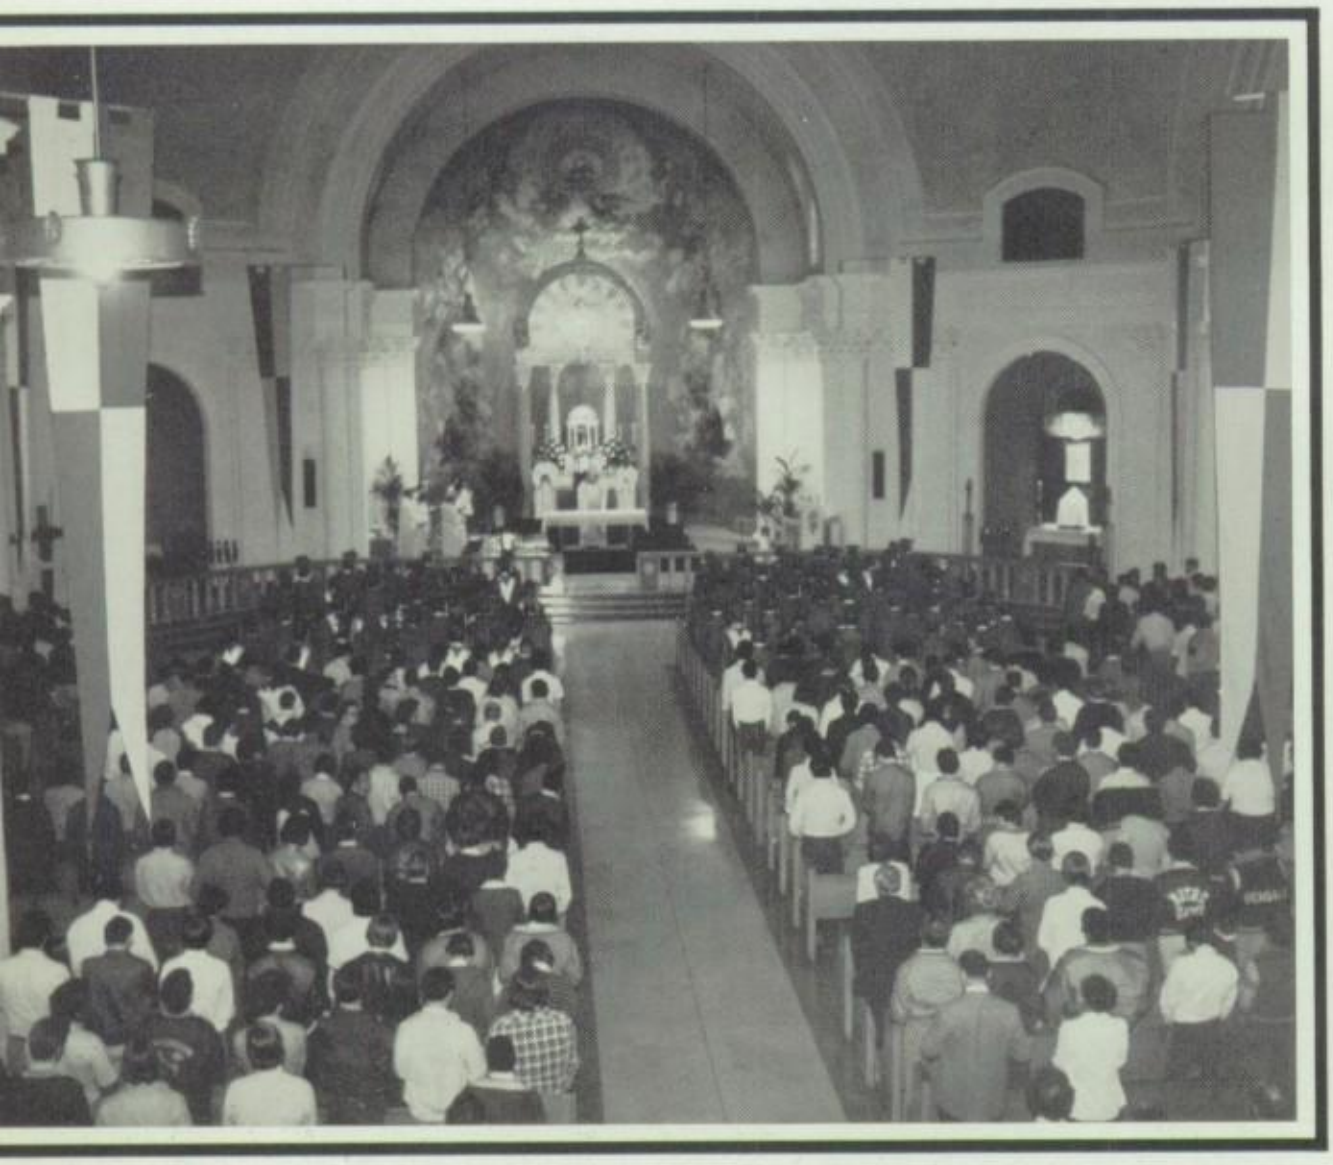
Benedictine saw many changes in the 1982-3 chool year. The greatest project was the install- nent of new windows. The project, done by Sterl- ng Glass, cost the school $325,000 and new doors nd an entrance to the cafeteria brought the bill up o about $450,000. Also, four computers were placed in the library. Bruce Mancini and Bill Lauri each donated one, one was obtained from Cathedral Latin, and one was given to BHS by the tate.

THIS IS

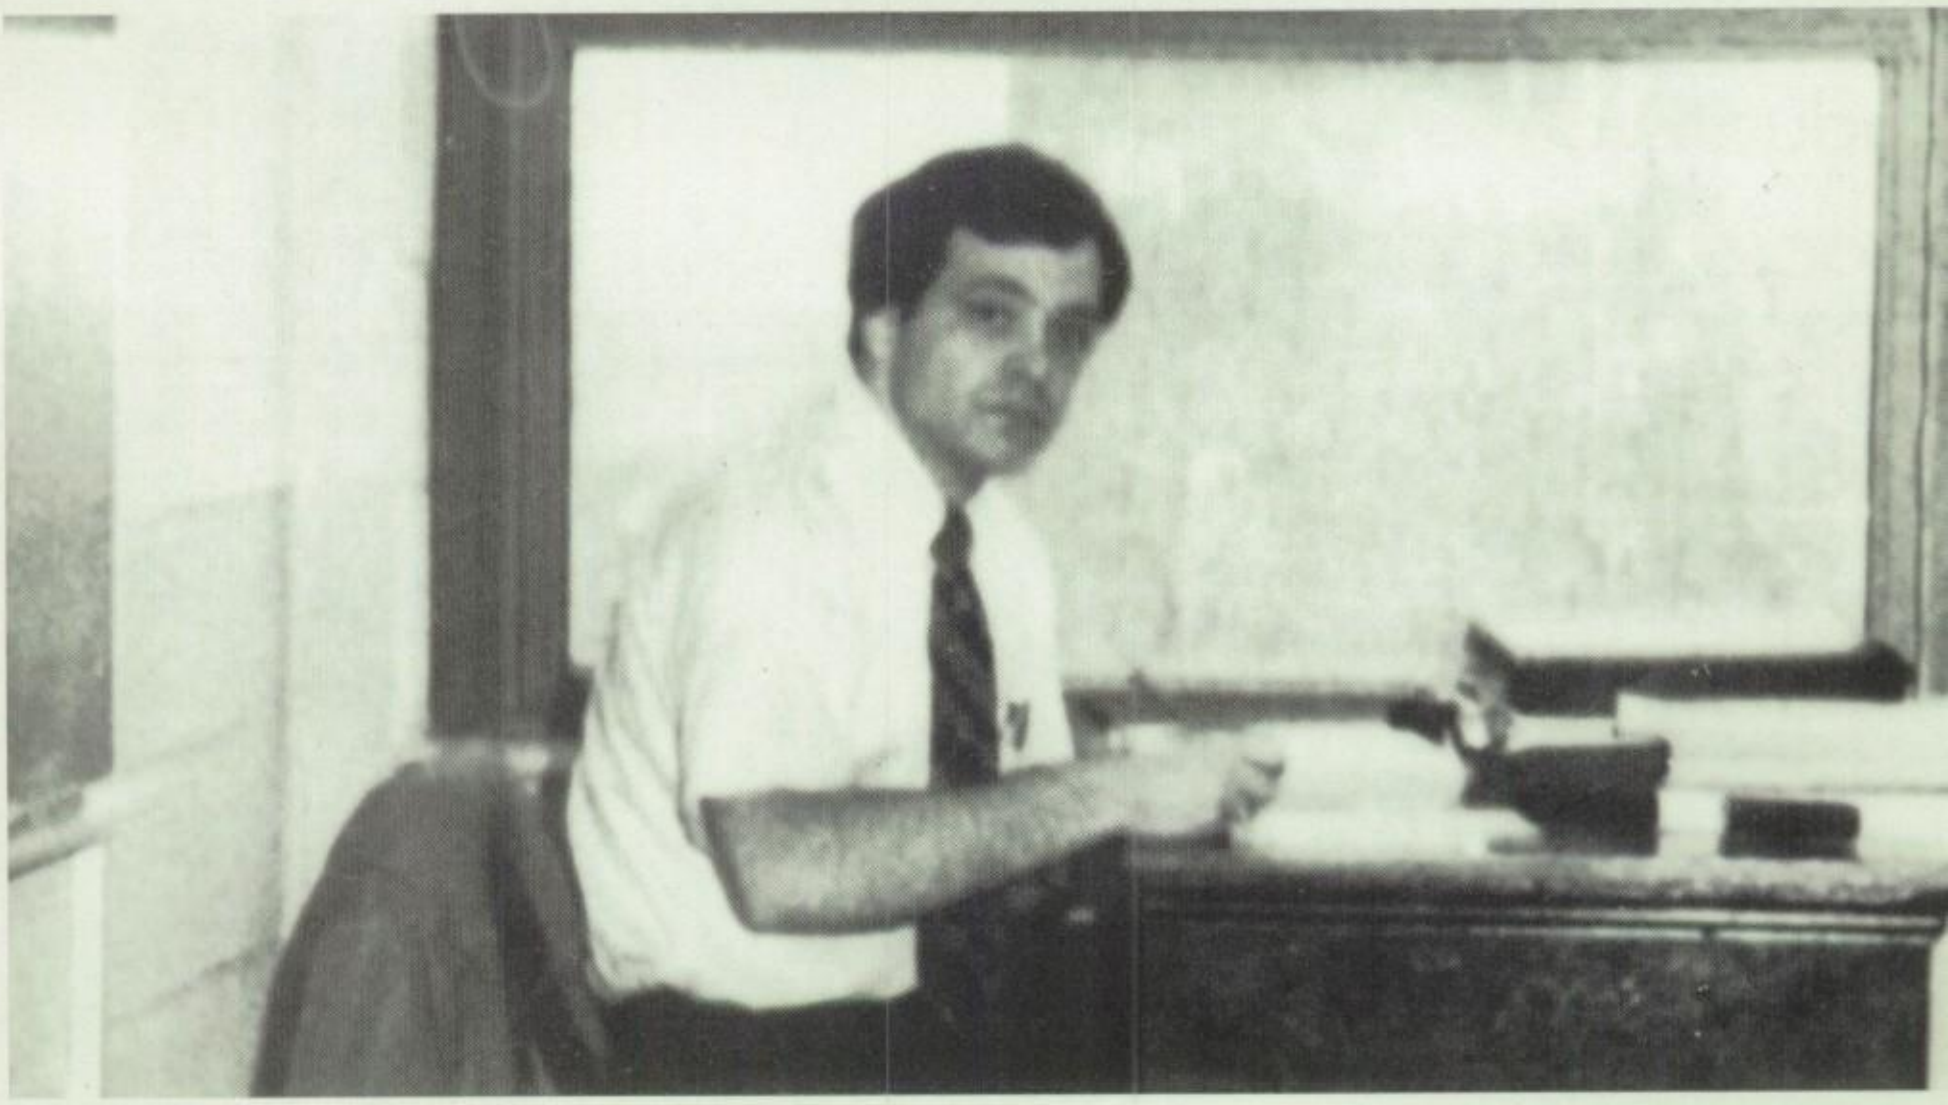
BENEDICTINE . . .

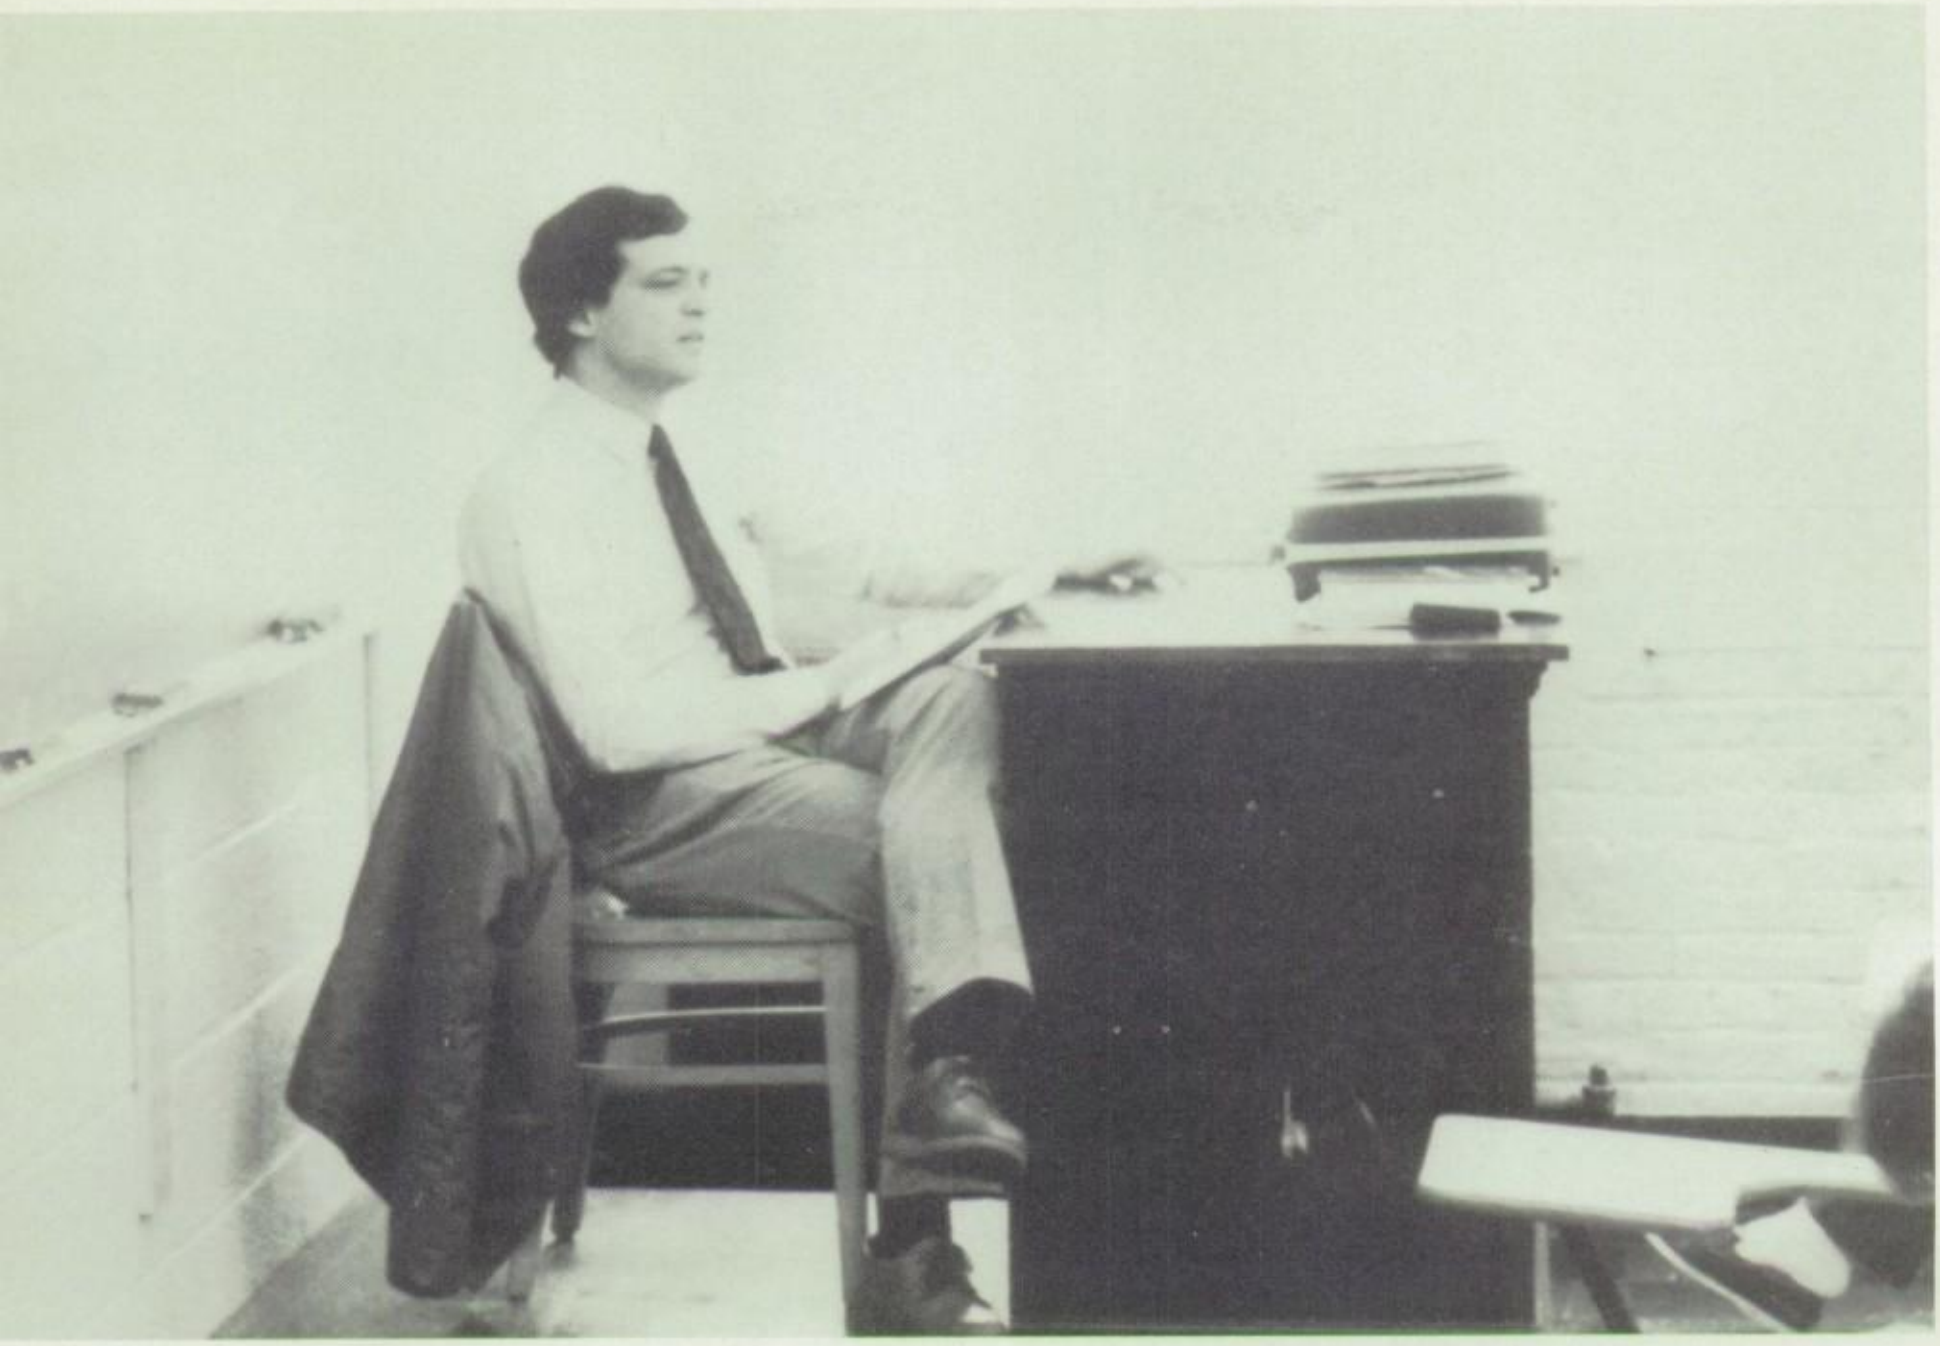






"This is Benedictine, not St. Ignatius!"





The 1983 Benedictine is dedicated to Mr. Rick DiGeronimo, a dedicated and capable teacher. A graduate of Benedictine, "Mr. D." has aided the school tremendously. Over the past 6 years he has taught math and history, driven a bus, worked in the treasurer's office, and helped in many other activities as well.

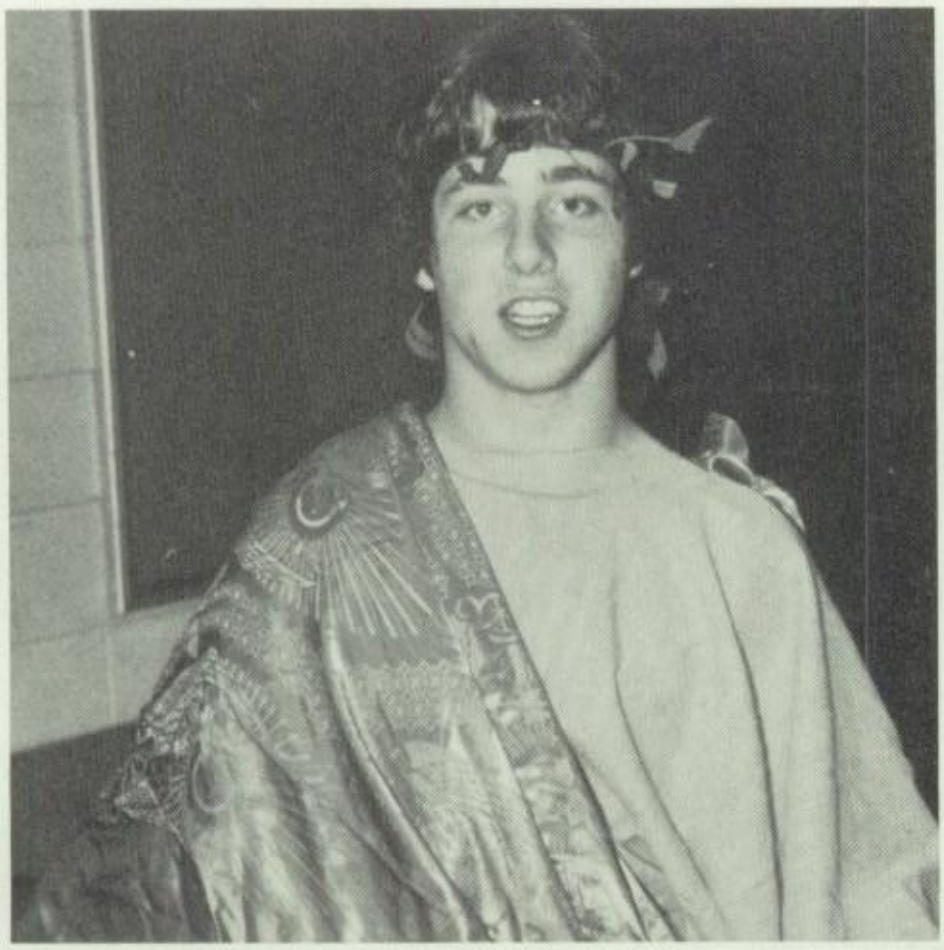
SOPHOMORE GREEK DAY

The class of '85 had a Greek day this year, and was a great success. They had competition for jeopardy, poet chariot race, drama, and poster drawing. A speech was made by Dr. Kelly of John Carroll University. The spee was based on Greek's way of life. There was a contest for best behavior and respect because the Greeks had the qualities.



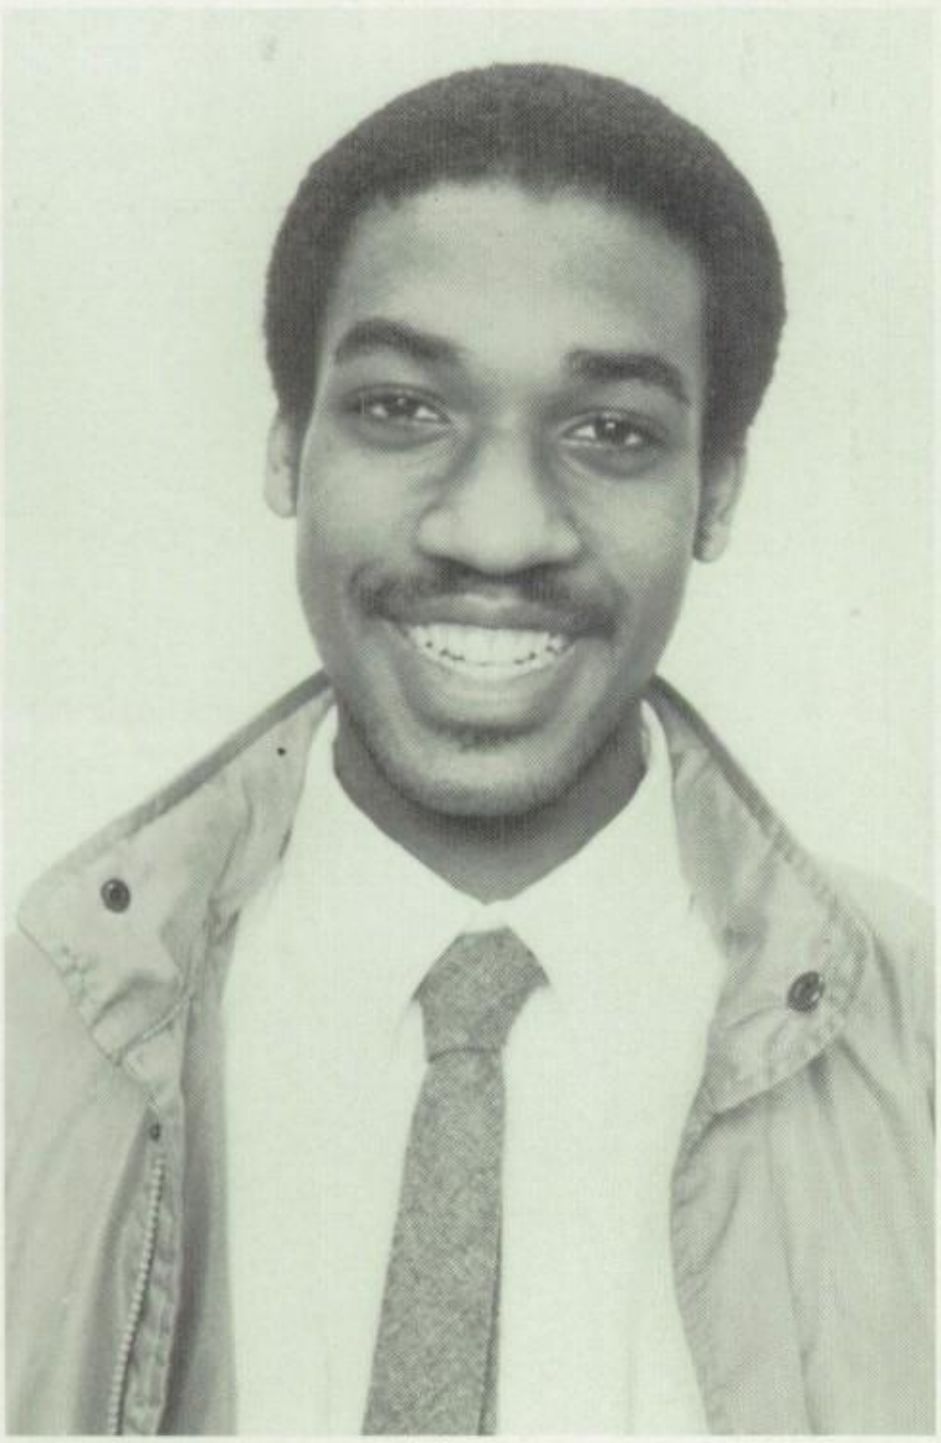
Hey man, I is a Greek English Major.

Come on fellas let's play like Greek Gods once did.

ONE LAST LOOK AT THE UNDERCLASS

I would like to thank the following for their time and effort to complete this section of the book even though the weren't on the staff. They are as follows: Sandra Kozma, Janie Kozma, Mike Kozma, Lennon Taylor, and Bett Mayzik.

Excuse Me Father Jude what do you think of them Benedictine Bengals?



Hey I didn't do anything to him.

With two consecutive football championships in 1980 an 1981, the 1982 Varsity football team had a very tough act follow. Playing a schedule that featured four state-ranke teams, the Bengals finished with a 7-3 record. Although the did not qualify for the state playoffs, the 1982 Bengals c present Coach Auggie Bossu with his 200th grid victory wh at Benedictine. Bossu's 200th win came in the Bengals' l season game. The talent and desire were present t season but when the big victory was needed, it did n materialize. Even though another State Championship w not achieved, the team chalked-up another winning seas and Coach Bossu's 200th victory.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

The Junior Varsity football team finished their season with a surprising 4-1-1 record. After a tie opening game, they followed with back-to-back shut-outs over St. Joe's and St. Ignatius by scores of 12-0 and 21-0 respectively. The following week they fell to Holy Name. The team rebounded by blanking Lake Catholic 16-0. The J.V.'s ended their fine season with a 19-6 victory over Padua.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The Baby Bengals finished the season with a disappointing 2-3-1 record. The team possessed the talent and the size, but couldn't put it together. They opened the season with a loss to Central Catholic but bounced back to defeat St. Joe's 12-2. The Freshmen lost two close games to St. Ignatius and Holy Name. The Bengals then shutdown Padua 16-0. The final game was a heartbreaking tie with Lake Catholic 6-6. The Freshman offense was paced by QB Pat Cullen, runningbacks Robert Dunn and Dean Fortman, and wingback Ken Redd. The defense was spearheaded by end Larry Wanke, linebackers Kevin Gallagher and Scott McNulty, and safety Tony St. John.

GOLF

This year's varsity golf team, minus a couple of members, entered this season trying to better their 4-4 season record of last year. The Bengals got off to a fast start by winning three of their first four matches. The team was paced by low scorers John Maruna and Dan McGuigan. In the sectionals, coach Ken Rados' team was moved into AAA play because of the schools' increased enrollment. The team finished toward the middle of the field and finished the season with a 4-5 record.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's team was made up of younger players. Two sophomores, Tim Jenkins and Frank Reed, were irregular starters when the season was young. Reed became a regular starter and came on strong towards the end of the season. Both players should be great assets to next year's team. Eric Mudd had another great year taking top honors in the scoring and rebounding categories. Pete Hrisko also played well this year and tallied the most assists. Other regular starters were; Ken Johnson, Mike Griffin.

The team finished the season with a 10-10 record.

Mr. Leonard Rosenburg

The Yearbook Staff, on behalf of the senior class, would like to thank Mrs. Mary Ellen Meshginpoosh for her creativity and generosity in the construction of the billboard and the giving of pens to all the graduates of the class of 1983.

This page is dedicated to the memory of Doug Hooten, a member of the Benedictine family, who died tragically this past year.
The 1983 Benedictine Yearbook Staff would like to thank all of the members of the Benedictine family who helped us during our years at Benedictine.
